This Court has been informed that the attorney of record for the Appellant in this appeal has ceased representing the Appellant, that the appeal may have been settled, and that the district court action from which this appeal was taken has been dismissed by stipulation. However, no pleading, motion or other document has been filed with this Court concerning any of those matters despite the Court's request for the status of the appeal to be confirmed. Thus, the parties are hereby ORDERED to advise the Court in writing, within 15 days of the filing of this order, whether the pending motion to dismiss and/or this appeal should be withdrawn or dismissed on the basis of a settlement, mootness, or any other reason. It is further ORDERED that the Appellant inform the Court of the identity of its current attorney for this appeal.
